Olympic Competition Format

Speed skating at the Olympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026 comprises 14 events (distances):

- Women: 500m, 1000m, 1500m, 3000m, 5000m, mass start and team pursuit
- Men: 500m, 1000m, 1500m, 5000m, 10,000m, mass start and team pursuit

Individual distances (except mass start)

All individual distances except the mass start are organised in a single race format.

Mass Start

Two semifinals and a final will be skated on the same day. The top eight ranked skaters from each semifinal qualify for the final. In addition, skaters may be advanced to the final based on the referee's decision. Each race consists of 16 laps with intermediate sprints after four, eight and 12 laps and a final sprint at the finish. The ranking at the intermediate sprints will be determined by transponder-based timing (the top three positions confirmed by photo-finish, if necessary), and the finishing order at the final sprint will be determined by photo-finish. Event rankings are based on points gained in sprints, then by finish time for skaters not scoring any points.

Race points are awarded for the sprints as follows:

- Intermediate sprints: first three skaters will gain: 3 - 2 - 1 points.
- Final sprint: first six skaters will gain: 60 - 40 - 20 - 10 - 6 - 3 points.
- The winners of the final sprint (places 1 to 3) will be ranked 1 - 2 - 3 in the race.
- The remaining skaters will be ranked according to their sprint points.
- Skaters without points will be ranked according to their order of finish in the final sprint.
- For skaters who do not finish the race in a regular manner, points allocated from the intermediate sprints will not be considered for the final race result. Such intermediate sprint points will not be reallocated to other skaters.
- Skaters not finishing the race will be ranked according to the number of laps they have completed before abandoning the race. If more than one of these skaters have completed the same number of laps, they will be ranked according to their intermediate times from their last completed lap.
- Skaters who are lapped may continue the race. Any points allocated from the intermediate sprints prior to them being lapped will not be considered for the final race result. Such intermediate sprint points will not be reallocated to other skaters.
- Those skaters who do not qualify for the final will be given an event ranking based on the ISU rules.
- The intermediate rankings shown at the completion of each lap are based on the order of crossing the finishing line, not on any accumulated sprint points. After each sprint, the current points standings are shown separately on the scoreboard.

Team Pursuit

Races are skated with three skaters in each team. The result of the team is determined by the last finishing skater in the team. The teams start at opposite positions at each side of the track. In elimination format (semifinals and finals) a team is declared the winner if it overtakes the other team. Otherwise, the winner is the team with the fastest finishing time.

Women's and men's team pursuit races will be skated over two days. The first day's programme will include the quarterfinals for women and men. On the second day, the semifinals for women and men and all finals (medal races and classification races) will be staged.

The four fastest teams from the quarterfinal races will advance to the semifinals, the two fastest losers will race in final C for fifth and sixth places, and the two slowest losers will race in final D for seventh and eighth places. The winners of the semifinals will race in the gold-medal final A race and the losers of the semifinals in the bronze-medal final B race.

Differences between the ISU World Speed Skating Championships and the Olympic Winter Games

The Olympic Winter Games competition format is similar to the ISU world championships in single distances, but only one distance is skated per day of competition. The Team Pursuit is skated with a set of elimination phases, ending with decisive final races. In the world championships, the team pursuit events are decided on time performance in a single set of races.

ISU Speed Skating World Championships are also held with a different format from the competitions at the Olympic Winter Games. In the World Allround and the World Sprint Championships results are determined by the total points based on the times after four distances.

Changes since the Olympic Winter Games Beijing 2022

None.

Sport Rules and Procedures

Racing course

The oval has a 400m track with two competition lanes. For individual distances (except mass start) skaters compete in pairs. One starts in the inner lane, the other in the outer. Competitors starting in the inner lane must wear white armbands, competitors in the outer lane red armbands. The skaters change their lanes at the crossing straight (opposite the finishing straight) every lap. However, when a distance starts on the crossing straight, the first changeover takes place after one lap.

Competitors are placed in groups based on the ISU ranking list. Pairs are drawn within each group. The pairs from the group with the best skaters start last in the competition.

For the mass start, skaters start together and only one competition lane (restricted only by the inner demarcation of the warm-up lane) is used. The total number of skaters allowed to compete in one race is generally limited to 24 (or to 30), but at the Olympic Games there will normally be no more than 16 skaters in one race. Both women and men skate over a distance of 16 laps.

For the team pursuit races only one competition lane (restricted only by the inner demarcation of the inner racing lane for individual races) is used. The two teams in a race will start and finish in the middle of the finishing and the crossing straights respectively. Women skate over a distance of six laps, men over a distance of eight laps.

Starting order

Competitors are placed in groups based on the ISU ranking list. Pairs are drawn within each group. The pairs from the group with the best skaters start last in the competition.

The composition of the heats of the quarterfinals of the team pursuit will be determined by an open draw between the entered teams.

For the semifinals and finals of the team pursuit events, the races are composed according to the results from the previous round of races.

For the mass start races the line-up at the start (up to six skaters per row) will be according to ISU ranking in the semifinals and according to semifinal results in the final.

Re-skate

For individual distances (except mass start) and team pursuit the referee may allow a skater or team a fresh start (re-skate) in cases where the skater or team has been obstructed by another skater or team in the race, or by some other disturbance. In the case of a re-skate, the skater or team has the right to a rest time of 30 minutes, and the result is determined by the better time of the two races.

Timing

Competition Format and Rules

Formato e regole gara / Format et règlement des compétitions

As of FRI 30 JAN 2026

Races will be timed automatically, to an accuracy of one thousandth of a second, with multiple automatic timekeeping systems and a manual timekeeping providing backup. Times will be displayed to one hundredth of a second unless skaters/teams are tied and the tie can be broken at the thousandth-of-a-second level.

For the team pursuit events, the finishing time of each team is recorded as the time of the last (third) finishing skater of the team.

Tiebreak rules

Individual distances (except mass start)

- If two or more skaters obtain the same time to the hundredth of a second, the ties will be broken to the thousandth of a second. Times will then be presented with the thousandth of a second included. If times are still equal, the tie remains.

Mass Start

- If two or more skaters obtain the same rank in the intermediate sprint as recorded by the transponder-based timing, the ties will be broken by taking into consideration the ranking order according to the photo-finish-based timing system. If it is not possible to distinguish the order of the skaters by photo-finish, the tie remains and both skaters receive the same number of sprint points (3, 2 or 1 points, respectively).
- If two or more skaters obtain the same finishing order in the final sprint, as recorded by the photo-finish system, the tie remains and both skaters receive the same number of sprint points (60 - 40 - 20 - 10 - 6 - 3 points, respectively).
- If two or more skaters obtain the same points total, the finish order in the final sprint will break the tie, if possible.
- Any finish times that are tied to the hundredth of a second will be presented with the thousandth of a second included.

Team Pursuit

- If two teams obtain the same time to the hundredth of a second, the tie will be broken to the thousandth of a second. Times will then be presented with the thousandth of a second included.
- If ties remain after considering the times to the thousandth of a second for quarterfinals or semifinals, a tie for qualifying for progression to the next phase will be broken by the Olympic qualification ranking. Times for tied teams will be presented to the thousandth of a second.
- If ties in the finals remain after considering the times to the thousandth of a second, the tie remains.

Penalties/disqualification rules

A competitor/team will be disqualified according to ISU rules:

- In the case of a false start when there has already been one false start in the pair (not applicable for mass start).
- In the case of a breach of the rules concerning authorised competition or sport equipment.
- In the case of a doping offence (positive doping test).
- In the case of a breach of the eligibility rules of the ISU.
- In case of cutting the inner line in the curve.
- In team pursuit if fewer than three skaters finish the race.

Based on the judgement of the referee, a competitor can be disqualified according to ISU rules:

- If the skater does not keep within the prescribed lane or racing track demarcation.
- If the skater obstructs another competitor.
- In the case of improper conduct towards officials.
- In case of unsportsmanlike behaviour.
- If skater did not change lane to the other lane on crossing straight, or does it incorrectly (too early or too late).
- If skater is late at the start.
- In case of pace-making or improper overtaking.
- At the finishing line deliberately kicking out of a skate (so that the skate entirely breaks contact with the ice).
- In mass start races, if a skater accelerates during the first lap before a distinctive sound signal.

Competition Format and Rules

Formato e regole gara / Format et règlement des compétitions
As of FRI 30 JAN 2026

Athletes, teams and team officials may receive a warning or yellow card from the referee for incidents relating to behaviour. Multiple warnings may result in further sanction.

Protests/appeals

- Protests concerning the participation of any skater must be made before the start of the competition.
- Protests concerning results of the competition must be made during or immediately (not later than 15 minutes) after the end of the competition. Such protests will be decided upon by the referee.
- No protests can be made to an FOP decision of the referee.

Sport Terminology

Terminologia sportiva / Terminologie du sport
As of FRI 30 JAN 2026

Term	Definition
Arm band	During racing each competitor must wear an arm band. In the individual distances, the colour of the arm band defines the starting lane of the skater (white armband for inner lane, red for outer lane). In the Team Pursuit event the arm band includes the colours white, red, yellow and blue to identify the skater (member of the team).
Chief Timekeeper	The Chief Timekeeper is responsible for the recording of times. There is one Chief Timekeeper responsible for the automatic time keeping system and one Chief Timekeeper responsible for the manual time keeping procedure.
Finishing Line Judge	For the manual timing procedure, the Finishing Line Judge is an official that will determine which skater is the winner, or if skaters are tied. When a photo-finish system is used to establish the final time, the official reading of the photo-finish result assumes the role of the Finishing Line Judge.
Gap (time)	A gap is the difference between the best time (the time of the winner or of the current leader) and the time of a given competitor, displayed in seconds to two decimal places. For the winner, the gap is always indicated as "0.00".
Helmet cover	During the Mass Start event each competitor must wear a helmet cover which defines the starting position of the skater. Semifinals: Each Semifinal will have different coloured helmet covers. For Semifinal 1 white color with blue digits 1 to 16, for Semifinal 2 blue colour with white digits 1 to 16. Final: Skaters who qualified from Semifinal 1 will wear white helmet covers, with numbers corresponding to their rank in the semifinal. Skaters who qualified from Semifinal 2 will wear blue helmet covers, with numbers corresponding to their rank in the semifinal.
Lane	In a speed skating competition, the competitors in a pair skate in either of two lanes, the inner lane (denoted as "I") or the outer lane (denoted as "O"). According to the draw, one competitor starts in the inner lane and the other in the outer lane. While skating, competitors must change lanes on each lap on the crossing straight opposite the finishing straight. In the team pursuit event only one lane is used (the usual inner lane). Teams start in either the crossing straight or finishing straight. In the mass start event the whole ice track including the usual warm up lane is used.
Lap time	A lap time is the time recorded by a skater from a crossing of the finishing line to the next time the skater crosses the finishing line. For the team pursuit event a split time will be recorded after the crossing of each of the two finishing lines for this event, and the time used for the 1/2 lap between each of these crossing will be displayed.
Pair	A pair normally consists of two skaters who compete at the same time (receiving the same start signal) over a speed skating distance. In the case of an odd number of competitors in the distance, or in the case of withdrawals during the competition, a pair may consist of a single skater.
Personal Best (PB)	A personal best is the best time ever achieved by a skater in that distance.
